Today in the Ausseerland

Church St. Ägid Altaussee

The church in Altaussee, built in the 12th century, is an important testimony to the region's history. The parish church was first mentioned in documents in the 15th century. Particularly worth seeing are the Gothic sacrament house and the Ägidius patrocinium, which reflect the deep religious ties of the community. Its long tradition dates back to the Middle Ages and makes it a cultural and spiritual center of Altaussee. Translated with DeepL.com (free version)

Grimming-Alpakas

You should allow about two hours for an alpaca hike. Sturdy footwear is required. The trail leads up to the Kulm district. This is also accessible with baby carriages. However, it is quite a way uphill.
