STEIERMARK

Weil es dir gut tut.®

a very warm welcome

to the Murau Region

The Murau Region is a part of Styria known for its picture-postcard charm, bringing together lush meadows, deep green forests, secluded valleys and imposing mountains.

There's just as much variety in Styria's cuisine as there is in its natural beauty. Here, you can eat well and discover a local delicacy or two: the Murau Region will take you on a fascinating journey of culinary discovery where traditional specialities are just waiting to be sampled. From a hearty snack platter to an exquisite dinner, in Murau, you'll find a whole range of delicious dishes to tempt your tastebuds. Cool beer, flavourful cheese, fresh fish, tender lamb and game and sweet honey – the local produce here is in harmony with humankind, animals and nature. Sustainable production processes are assured by quality seals and certificates.

& Bars, Cafés Confectioners

End the day relaxed with a cocktail or treat yourself to a relaxing break in the region's coffee houses and ice cream parlours. There are many places where you can grab a coffee for a pick-me-up or relax over a cup.

It's the perfect combination with delicious cakes, luscious tarts and fruity pastries.

Many cafés make their own sweet treats, mainly using locally sourced ingredients.

Daybar-Lounge Open Space

The Open Space, in the middle of the historic old town of Murau, rises magnificently over the old city wall towards Mur. At a height of 12 meters, people still philosophize about this extraordinary architecture over a cosy coffee, a well-groomed glass of wine or a refreshing summer drink. The most impressive element in this building is undoubtedly the retractable glazing in the front area. This is how the influential name OPEN SPACE came into being.

Traude and Fritz from the Brauhaus zu Murau

Only the best

The Brauhaus zu Murau is a standard-bearer for its values:

traditional cuisine with local specialities, sustainability and honest use of raw materials. Our team is constantly striving to grow and use ingredients that help promote health. For instance, we use natural Persian salt (unrefined and non-iodised) to season our dishes and source our produce from local and certified businesses.

Our Brauhaus has a long tradition of brewing to look back on. We serve eight different beers, always fresh from the barrel. People love a fresh and perfectly poured beer.

It always brings us great joy to see our products put smiles on people's faces.

Outstanding Murau beer – from pils and lager to dark ales – sometimes also makes its way into our dishes as the base for soups and gravies.

A visit to the cosy surroundings of the Brauhaus zu Murau with friends is always worth your time - as good food and drink keep body and soul as one.

Welcome to the Murau Beer Pharmacy

The Murauer Bierapotheke - formerly the Salvator Apotheke- isn't just in the heart of Murau.

According to records, it's in this proud brewing city's oldest building.

The Murauer Bierapotheke is both a stylish spot to get together for drinks and a shop where you can purchase typical apothecary products from the local area.

From shampoos, balms and lotions to teas and brewer's grain pillows, the shop has everything your heart could desire.

The Bierapotheke has become a meeting place for all things beer, combining history and a long tradition of brewing.

See you there – at the Murauer Bierapotheke.

Chef Marco Leypold / Egidiwirt

A local original

For the head chef at Egidiwirt, Marco Leypold, a focus on the local is far from a marketing gimmick. It's something he's put into practice for many years now. 'We source everything we can from the Murau Region.

We're well-acquainted with our suppliers, so we know exactly which produce is in season and sure to taste great. We cook our brilliant produce as soon as it arrives in the kitchen, so we can always ensure the best quality and flavour. We look forward to your visit and would like to say: welcome to Egidiwirt, where eating is a sustainable experience.'

Recipe for organic cockerel

We've put together a great sustainable recipe for you: organic cockerel. It boasts a unique flavour and the increased demand for these birds gives them a much longer lifespan!

Alpine Restaurant Tonnerhütte

37

We've been living and working on alpine pasture for 40 years. Our lives have always been shaped by the magic of the mountain and the rhythms of nature – in stark contrast to the constant pursuit of bigger, faster and more. True quality of life that we'd like to share with you. We welcome visitors from the valley – for walks and archery in summer, and skiing, uphill tobogganing and snowshoeing in winter.

Every day, chef Wolfgang makes traditional dishes using tried and tested techniques from fresh local produce from the natural park. Everything is made from fresh ingredients.

& Lodges Snack bars

Take time out from everyday life and enjoy delicious flavours in relaxed surroundings. In the Alm lodges and snack bars in the Murau Region, you can enjoy a typical Styrian deli platter, cheese dumplings, Kaiserschmarrn pancakes and much more. In combination with the mountain air and stunning views, these freshly made dishes taste simply heavenly.

Da Brauhäuser

The snack station not only stands for culinary and regional delicacies, but also for cordiality and a family atmosphere. They spoil you with products from their own agriculture. With love we produce products such as must, apple juice, jams, juices, spirits as well as bacon and homemade sausages ourselves. Of course you can also take our products home with you. A large sun terrace, a children's playground and a playroom ensure a cosy "get-together".
